'Trailblazer' actress Mona dies aged 91

MONA Hammond has been hailed as a pioneer and trailblazer after her death at 91.

The Jamaican-British actress, best known for playing Blossom Jackson in EastEnders and Susu in sitcom Desmond's, was a star of stage and screen for decades.

Hammond was made an OBE in the 2005 for her services to drama. In 2018, she was awarded the Women of the World lifetime achievement award for her theatre career.

Former EastEnders actress Cheryl Fergison led tributes, describing her as an "inspiration".

She wrote: "What a wonderful actress and pioneering woman, RIP Mona Hammond 91 fantastic years of inspiration."

Loose Women presenter Charlene White wrote: "Mona Hammond, a trailblazer in every way. Thank you."

50,000 flee Aussie flood

ABOUT 50,000 people have been urged to evacuate their homes as floods hit Australia's largest city for the third time this year.

Parts of Sydney copped eight months of rain in four days. Roads have been cut off, some houses are under water and thousands have been left without power.

More than 100 evacuation orders have been issued across Greater Sydney.

Some areas have seen 800mm of rain in four days, a third more than the average rainfall London receives in a year.

PRITI ORDERS COPS: CRUSH THE FUEL PROTESTS

HOME SEC: Priti Patel

HOME Secretary Priti Patel has called on police to use tough new powers, which include imprisonment, to stop fuel protesters bringing gridlock to motorways and major A-roads across the UK.

The new measures to tackle non-violent demonstrations that have a significant disruptive impact on the public came into effect on June 28 as part of changes to the law.

A Home Office source said: "Through our Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act, we have given the police a wealth of powers to deal with disruptive and damaging protests, including imprisonment and unlimited fines for those blocking a highway - actions which inflict further pain on those affected by rising prices.

"The Home Secretary would encourage and support the police to make use of all the powers available to them.

"Forces need to move people on. These protests are blocking people from getting to work and from carrying out other vital journeys - this is not about whether you believe in the cause or not."

The stance was supported by Downing Street, with a senior Government source adding: "The Government has given the police a lot of powers to deal with this sort of stuff and we are looking to them to use it. We want to know what they are going to do about it."

A group of 12 people were arrested on Monday as dozens of campaigners calling for a cut in fuel duty targeted the M4 in South Wales and Somerset, and stretches of the M5 from Devon to Bristol, with rolling go-slow roadblocks in the morning rush-hour.

Court drops speeding rap against Katie

TWO charges against Katie Price, including one of speeding, have been dismissed.

The two charges were heard at Crawley Magistrates' Court, where they were dismissed as "no evidence was offered".

The 44-year-old former glamour model had been charged with exceeding the 60mph limit on September 13 2021, and failing to provide information on January 26 this year. Price did not attend court.

Last September, she was handed a suspended sentence after crashing her BMW on the B2135 in West Sussex.

She was given a 16-week prison sentence, suspended for 12 months, with 100 hours of unpaid work.

She was also disqualified from driving for two years and ordered to pay £85 costs.

Last month she avoided a potential jail sentence and was given a community order and told to pay £1,500 costs at Lewes Crown Court after pleading guilty to breaching a restraining order.

New car sales hit the brakes

THE UK automotive industry suffered its worst June for new car sales since 1996.

Registrations of new vehicles fell by 24.3% last month compared with June 2021.

Global shortages of components continue to hamper manufacturers' ability to fulfil demand, with 141,000 new cars registered in June, the trade body said.

Drivers are having to wait more than 12 months to take delivery of some models.

Only 802,000 new cars were sold during the first half of the year.

That was an 11.9% reduction from 2021, and is the industry's weakest January-June performance since 1992, except for the COVID lockdown in 2020.

LETTER: Simon McDonald

This morning I have written to the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards - because No 10 keep changing their story and are still not telling the truth.

BRIEFED IN PERSON: PM Boris Johnson

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

NUMBER 10 did not tell the truth when it said the PM was unaware of official complaints about Chris Pincher's behaviour, a former senior civil servant in the Foreign Office claims.

Simon McDonald said Boris Johnson had been "briefed in person" about a probe into Mr Pincher, then a Foreign Office minister.

The Foreign Secretary at the time, and now Justice Secretary, Dominic Raab, said everything had been "done by the book".

He told BBC News it was "news to me", and he did not think it was "factually accurate" that the PM had been briefed.

SUSPENDED: Pincher

Mr Pincher, the MP for Tamworth, was suspended as a Tory Party MP last week over allegations he groped two men at the Carlton Club, a private members' club in London.

He says he is seeking professional medical support and has denied misconduct.

On Monday, Downing Street said Mr Johnson was not aware of any specific allegations against Mr Pincher when he appointed him

Senior former civil servant exposes Number 10 fibs

Deputy Chief Whip in February.

However, later that day, it emerged the Prime Minister had been aware of a formal complaint about him.

Now, in a letter to the parliamentary standards commissioner, Lord McDonald has disputed No 10's version of events.

Lord McDonald, who was the Foreign Office's most senior civil servant from 2015 to 2020, said that in the summer of 2019, a group of officials had "complained to me about Mr Pincher's behaviour".

"In substance, the allegations were similar to those made about his behaviour at the Carlton Club."

He said that an investigation upheld the complaint adding: "Mr Pincher apologised and promised not to repeat the inappropriate behaviour."

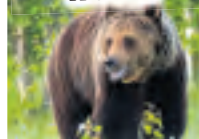

"Mr Johnson was briefed in person about the initiation and outcome of the investigation," he added.

Mr Raab said: "I have discussed this with the PM over the last 24 hours - it is not my understanding that he was directly briefed."

TRUMP FAN RAPPER KILLS SIX

THE man suspected of killing six people and wounding more than a dozen others during a July 4 parade is a Donald Trump-supporting rapper with a seemingly successful music career.

Robert 'Bobby' Crimo III, 22, who goes by the moniker Awake the Rapper, boasts more than 16,000 listeners per month on Spotify and has a net worth of $100,000. Music videos posted by Crimo online include a drawing of himself shooting people online, and a disturbing clip of himself throwing bullets on the floor of a classroom.

His most recent post was a picture of Budd Dwyer, the Pennsylvania state treasurer who killed himself on live TV in the 1980s, which he captioned: "I wish politicians still gave speeches like this."

After the massacre, trolls invaded the server and praised Crimo.

Police say he was 'known to law enforcement' but it is not yet known if this was due to the disturbing content he shared online which has now taken on a chilling relevance in the wake of the shooting.

So far, teacher Jacki Sundheim, a married mother, and grandfather Nicolas Toledo, 78, have been named as victims.

I'd love to be all over that and firm juicy behind, spassening that.

SHE'S certainly never been shy when it comes to showing off her supermodel looks, and her latest Instagram offering was no exception for Emily Ratajowski.

The American actress gave her 29.4million followers a very rude awakening as she posed completely NAKED while laying across a rug alongside her pet dog, Columbo.

There appeared to be no rhyme or reason for the photo, which the 31-year-old captioned: "Baby boy bumbi."

The cheeky snap showcased her bare bottom as she mirrored the same pose as her pooch, who had his paws up while spread out across the floor.

The Corrections, a novel by Jonathan Franzen, could also be seen next to the model, which is a sprawling tale about the diaspora of the modern American family.

Her husband, film producer Sebastian Bear-McClard, was not pictured, although it is quite possible that he was responsible for taking the racy snap.

Naturally, the scene provoked some VERY off-colour comments from readers of the hate-filled Daily Mail,

Women 'have a vagina' says singer Macy

SINGER Macy Gray has crashed into the transgender debate, telling Piers Morgan that being a woman requires being born with "boobs" and a "vagina".

"Just because you go change your parts doesn't make you a woman," the crooner told him.

The host observed that public figures are often wary of being candid on the issue due to fear of backlash.

Gray, 54, agreed, defining a woman as a "human being with boobs".

"How about you start there," she said. "And have a vagina."

The singer clarified she backs transgender rights — but drew the line at athletic events.

"If you want me to call you a 'her,' I will," she said. "Because that's what you want but that doesn't make you a woman just because I call you a 'her' and just because you got a surgery."

Trophy hunter shot dead in 'execution'

A HUNTER of endangered animals had the tables turned on him — when HE was shot dead in South Africa after his truck broke down.

Riaan Naude, the 55-year-old head of Pro Hunt Africa, was found dead next to his vehicle in Limpopo. Cops said they have no motive yet.

Two hunting rifles were found in Naude's car near the Kruger National Park wildlife reserve. The non-profit Heritage Protection Group (HPG) said Naude was shot dead by a man who pulled up alongside him when the hunter stopped his car near Mokopane after it overheated.

"His vehicle overheated and he was shot execution style in Limpopo," Twitter account XposeTrophyKilling said in a post.

The group said two men got out of a white Nissan pickup truck and that one shot him.

HPG said the pair snatched one of his guns and fled. A cattle herder heard a gunshot and witnessed a Nissan truck speeding away.

Cops confirmed Naude — who shared images of himself with animals that he killed — was shot dead.

Naude's company charges £300 per day to hunt game, £2,000 to shoot a crocodile and £1,000 for a giraffe.

Marie swaps catwalk for the checkout

MODELLING legend Marie Helvin says she's considering applying for a job as a supermarket cashier.

"I'm completely self-reliant, and I don't know what I am going to do, because during the pandemic period, I've used up most of my savings now and I'm seriously thinking about going home," said Helvin, 69, who grew up in Hawaii.

Helvin, who introduced Princess Diana to Dodi Fayed at an Aids Trust ball at Cliveden in 1989, lives in London, but believes ageism isn't a factor in the US state.

"They have less stigma about age with getting jobs," she said.

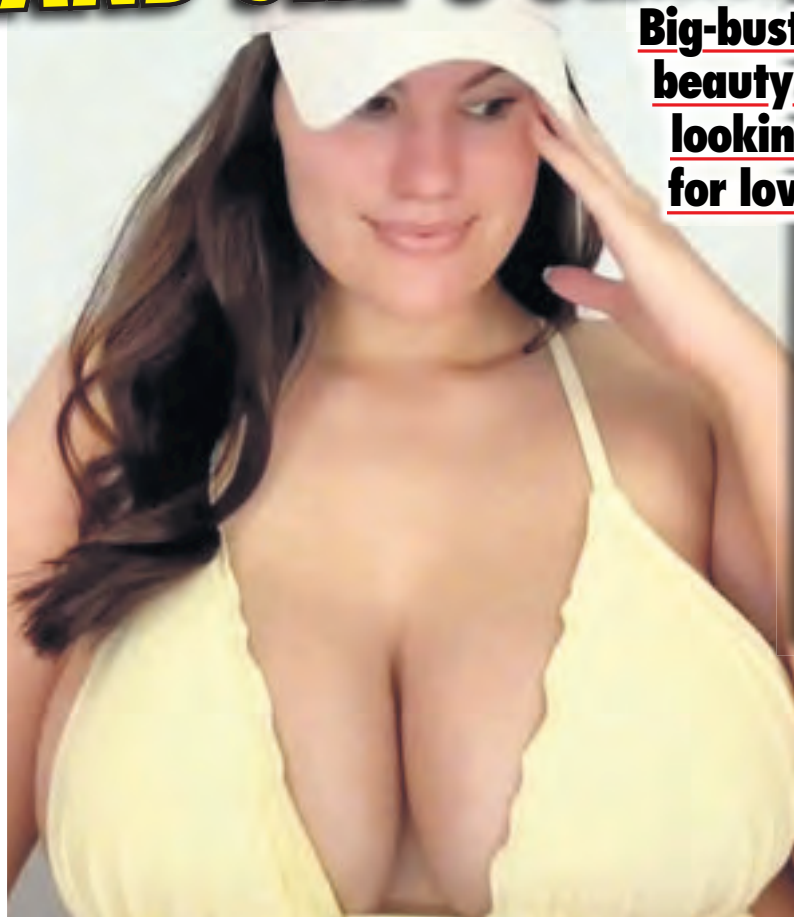

"You can get a job at the supermarket in your 80s in America.

Put it this way, I wouldn't apply to work in a supermarket here. But back home in Hawaii, if I needed to, I'd go there and work."

When she divorced photographer David Bailey in 1985, Helvin walked away with £100,000 and has never married again.

SAILOR 'LICKED BEER FROM GIRL'S BOOBS'

'Beer gut' flasher shocks women at stately home

OFFICERS are looking for a naked man with a beer belly who approached a group of women at a stately home.

North Yorkshire Police say he approached them in the gardens of Newby Hall, Ripon, North Yorks.

The man is described as white, 40-50 years of age and having a "slight beer belly".

He was between 6ft-6ft 2in, of medium build with dark brown hair.

The force asked for anyone who visited Newby Hall on the day who might have useful information to get in touch.

Newby Hall appeared as the venue of two episodes of BBC One's Antiques Roadshow filmed in 2020 and is also home to Gyles Brandreth's teddy bear museum.

It's not believed that either Gyles or his bears saw the pervert.

DENIAL: Able Seaman Simon Moss

A ROYAL Navy sailor sexually assaulted a female colleague by pouring beer onto her chest and then licking it off after claiming she liked kinky sex, a court martial heard.

Able Seaman Simon Moss allegedly "couldn't take no for an answer" after she refused to let him kiss her, and then pinned the young woman down, grabbed her hair and told her: "You love it."

He repeatedly told the female sailor she must like "rough" and "kinky" sex as she worked with ropes, after other sailors had gone to bed at a naval base, the court heard.

Having been rejected after leaning in for a kiss, AB Moss then "poured beer" onto her exposed breasts and proceeded to "lick" the drink he had spilt.

The female sailor, who cannot be named for legal reasons, said she ended the ordeal by kicking him in the privates after her pleas for him to stop were ignored.

AB Moss, who works as an above water warfare specialist on the Royal Navy's £1bn Type 45 destroyer HMS Dauntless, denies any wrongdoing and instead insists the woman was "all over me".

He denies three charges of sexual assault, although he accepts she rejected his attempt to kiss her.

Bulford Military Court, in Wilts, heard that at the time the pair were at HMS Raleigh naval base in Cornwall, and had been drinking with fellow sailors at a bar on the base.

After the bar shut AB Moss went to a communal television room where they continued drinking and chatting alone, until AB Moss tried to kiss the young woman and was rebuffed.

Prosecutor William Peters told the court: "AB Moss started touching her legs and playing with rips in her jeans... he leaned in for a kiss but was rejected.

"He then grabbed her hair, yanked her head back and attempted to kiss her. She moved back in her chair and avoided the kiss.

"He started talking about how she must like rough sex because she had marks from rope on her arms.

"He then restrained her arms behind her head and undid the top she was wearing, exposing her breasts.

Exposed

"At some point a beer was foamed up and poured on her exposed chest, and AB Moss licked the beer from her chest.

"She started shouting at him. He continued to lick her chest, so she kicked him between the legs.

"There was a struggle at the door. She ran out of the building" and video called a friend.

The alleged victim said: "I had a couple of bruises on my arm and he went on about how I must be into kinky stuff and BDSM.

"I was trying to explain that I work with ropes and stuff all day.

"He threw me back on the chair and put both my hands behind me.

"He shook his beer and poured it all over me. I couldn't move. I thought it was a joke at the start.

"I was shouting at him to get off me and he was licking my sternum.

"I kicked him between the legs because he was on top of me."

AB Moss denies three counts of sexual assault. The trial continues.

Stoll got frustrated and lobbed a sausage at the officer, who was in full uniform at the time of the incident.

VID GAME NUT CUT HIS MUM'S HEAD OFF

GRUESOME DISCOVERY: Collin Boldizar (above) faces murder charge after his mum (below) was found dead in her own home

A GEEK obsessed with playing video games murdered his own 70-year-old mother and chopped off her head... before returning to his computer to continue gaming.

Laurie Collins was brutally decapitated by her son after he violated a no-contact order she had against him and lived in her home.

Collin Boldizar, 29, is now facing murder charges for the grisly killing, at her home in Shoreline, Washington state.

Police were called to the property after a neighbour saw Laurie's car still parked in her usual spot at a time she would normally be at work, at the Seattle Pacific University where she was employed as a budget manager.

The neighbour then heard screaming and a series of loud thumps coming from the home at around 2am.

When cops arrived to conduct a welfare check, Boldizar closed the front door and locked it.

At one point, cops asked him about the screams coming from the house, and he told

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

them that he and his mother were "arguing" and that it happened "all the time".

When officers were unable to reach Laurie by phone they forced entry into the property and that's when they made the gruesome discovery.

Wounds

In an upstairs bedroom was her decapitated body with a baseball bat nearby.

Boldizar, who had self-inflicted superficial wounds on both wrists, was arrested at the scene.

He told cops that after killing his mother he'd "gone back to gaming".

The victim had filed a no-contact order against her son in May after a previous domestic violence incident.

According to Boldizar's Facebook profile, he is a gamer, who goes under the name 'Sweets'.

Tracy Norlen, Seattle Pacific University's Public Information Officer, said in a statement: "The university is deeply saddened by the death of our longtime colleague."

Man walks into a bar... and has cock lopped off

A MAN is recovering in hospital after his privates were HACKED OFF.

Nanaa Mepukori, 54, had gone to the gents at a bar in Orkine, Tanzania, when strangers attacked him and chopped off his tackle using a knife.

Speaking at the hospital where his father is being treated, Mepukori's son, Leyaseki, 26, said he found his father bleeding severely.

"I found dad helpless, and took him to the dispensary before he was moved to the hospital where he is now receiving treatment."

"Our plan is to take him to Dodoma for further treatment."

The victim's son said he's heard rumours there are people who buy human body parts, but before his father's incident he did not believe in them.

Screaming tug in public man faces 25 years

A MAN faces 25 years in prison after he was caught lying on the ground, furiously masturbating and screaming in terror.

Lennox John Ponzo, 24 (above), was charged with disturbing the peace after having a tug in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

As he performed the solo sex act near a crèche, he was also charged with flashing at minors.

Officers from Idaho Falls Police were sent after reports a man was "lying on the ground exposing himself, masturbating and yelling".

Court documents show cops arrived and saw Ponzo with his genitals exposed while committing a sex act.

When Ponzo noticed them, he reportedly zipped up his pants and started to walk away. He was then detained by cops.

One witness, a parent dropping off his child at the crèche, said that Ponzo was "screaming as though terrified and talking to himself", and that he was "very erratic".

Shock after probe into mum and daughter's sick trade

A MOTHER and daughter who ran a funeral home used the firm to sell human remains without getting the consent of the families of the deceased.

Megan Hess, 43, and Shirley Koch, 66, were arrested and each charged with six counts of mail fraud and three of illegal transportation of hazardous materials.

Hess and Koch opened the Sunset Mesa Funeral Home in Montrose, Colorado, in 2009.

Donor

That same year, Hess started a nonprofit donor services business that operated out of the same location as the funeral home, according to a press release by the United States Attorney's Office District of Colorado.

A federal indictment unsealed last week states that the donor service business would harvest human remains and sell them to customers who used them for scientific, medical or educational purposes.

By BRAD CHADWICK

Prosecutors allege the pair did not always have permission from families to donate the remains.

Grieving

Hess and Koch used the funeral home to offer grieving families cremation services, but "many never occurred," says the press release.

They either donated entire bodies or body parts without authorisation from the families.

"Hess and Koch also delivered remains to families with the representation that the remains were that of the deceased when, quite frequently, that wasn't the case," the press release added.

Shirley Koch last week said she intends to plead guilty to the charges against her.

Hess has also pleaded guilty in a plea deal with prosecutors. They'll be sentenced later.

Stench alerts cops to bodies piled up

DOZENS of decomposed bodies were discovered after locals alerted police to a foul stench coming from a funeral home, where some of the deceased had been stacking up for months.

Police in Jeffersonville, Indiana, conducted the grim search at Lankford Funeral Home, where they found 31 rotting bodies along with the cremated remains of at least 16 other people.

An air conditioning unit at the funeral home stopped working, which is believed to have enhanced the smell of the bodies, "some of which were in the advanced stages of decomposition", said police spokesman Maj Isaac Parker in a statement.

SHOPPER TAKES DUMP IN A BAG

A DESPERATE man was spotted removing his trousers and pants and pooping into a plastic bag in the middle of a shopping centre.

A disgusting video of the incident shows the male defecating at VivoCity shopping centre in Singapore.

He can be seen with his pants around his ankles, crouching down with several plastic bags on the floor below him.

He also appeared to reach down into the bags.

Witness Aki, who filmed the outrage, said: "As me and my friends walked around the mall, we saw this man taking a dump in the open and leaving it there, in a plastic bag, for someone to clean it."

Aki explained the daring dump occurred outside a Japanese grilled meat restaurant on the second floor of the shopping centre.

The shitter was later seen walking around holding food as if nothing had happened.

OAP holds burglars at gunpoint!

A PENSIONER turned the tables on a group of would-be burglars, shooting one and scaring the rest off after they broke into his house.

Joe Howard Teague, 93 (above), called cops to say he'd confronted several intruders at his home in Los Angeles and was holding them at gunpoint, the Riverside County Sheriff's Department said.

"I approached them to put them under citizen's arrest," Joe said.

"They wouldn't adhere to that and then one of them came at me with a fishing pole."

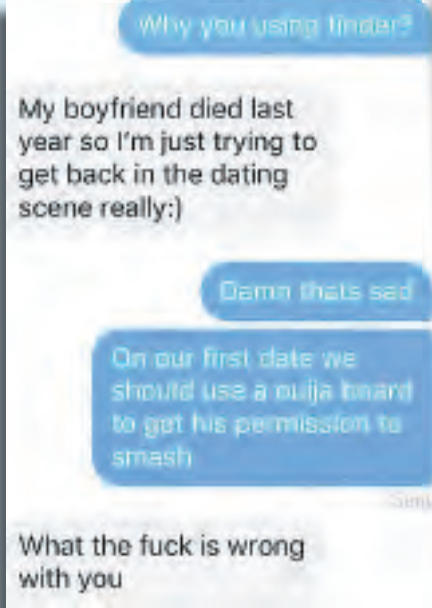

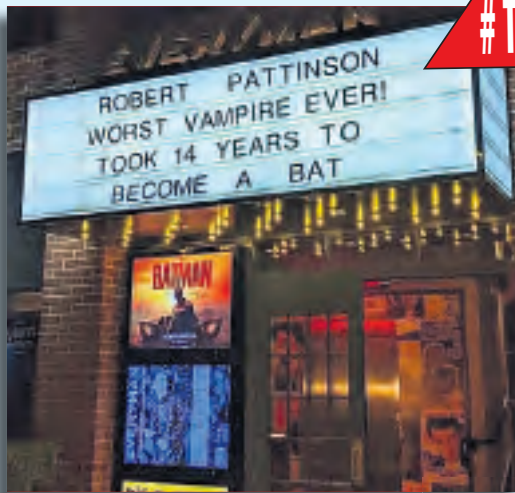

Mr Teague said the suspects, who had kicked his door open, started throwing objects at him as he pointed his gun in their direction.

"It was just like somebody comes to a gunfight with a pocketknife, you know," he added.

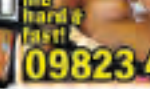

The OAP was later questioned and allowed to return home.

SENTENCE DEATH...

WAITRESS Barbara Nunn shivered in fear as she was locked in an industrial freezer, covering her eyes in horror as her friends were executed one by one. But, despite being shot in the head herself, she survived to point the finger at the perpetrator – evil Gerhard Hojan...

IGNORED PLEAS: Hojan shot 3 innocent people in the head

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS
AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

GERHARD Hojan has a macabre claim to fame...

He's not only been sent to Death Row once, he's been sent there TWICE.

The first time was in 2003, a sentence that was overturned in 2016 after a new law was passed demanding a jury reach a unanimous decision before a prisoner is told he'll be executed by the state.

In November 2018, however, jurors in Florida were able to reach that decision, resulting in Hojan's second trip to Death Row.

For those who have studied his horrific 2002 crime, in which he gunned down three waffle house staff members in

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

cold blood, Hojan, now 43, is right where he belongs.

One of the most harrowing aspects of the atrocities concerns teen victim Christina Delarosa.

In her final, agonising moments, she screamed the name of her six-month-old son, Kyle.

Christina, just 17 at the time, would never see her baby again. She died from a gunshot wound to the head.

But, at the age of three, Kyle was in court to witness his mother's evil killer being served justice.

Jason Kalinowski, Kyle's dad and Christina's boyfriend, said:

"I don't think Gerhard Hojan deserves to live another day.

"Kyle doesn't know what happened yet, but he's going to suffer without his mother for the rest of his life.

"You just wonder what goes on in someone's mind that would make them want to do something like this."

Hojan also murdered 18-year-old Willie Absolu as he and his accomplice Jimmy Mickel set about robbing the restaurant of less than $300.

Upon sentencing Hojan the first time around, Broward Circuit Judge Paul Backman said: "There can be no doubt that the victims suffered immeasurable fear and terror at the hands of Gerhard Hojan.

"The defendant's degree of ruthlessness can be seen when he shot an unarmed victim in the head, waitress Barbara Nunn, because she could identify him.

"He then proceeded to methodically murder the second victim, then the third victim."

Mental health expert Dr Michael Brannon testified in court, having reviewed Hojan's early years.

Abuse

And he reported that Hojan had a medical history that included head injuries, alcohol abuse and extreme difficulties in school.

Hojan was described as a 'stubborn youth' – behaviour exacerbated by a nasty head injury he suffered in a car accident when he was just seven years old.

But, despite all that, he had no prior criminal history and was actually well liked before he committed his terrible crime.

MASTERMIND: But Jimmy Mickel was acquitted of murders

At the time, Hojan and Mickel were living in a trailer together, but Hojan had fallen into financial difficulties and was behind on his rent.

On March 11, 2002, Hojan and Mickel drove a truck to the Waffle House restaurant in Davie, Florida, arriving shortly before 4am. A handgun weighed heavy in Hojan's pocket.

Three members of staff were working that morning – Christina and Barbara, who were waitresses, and Willie, who was a cook.

The two men ordered a waffle and drinks.

According to Barbara, there was a relaxed atmosphere as she personally knew Mickel because he occasionally worked as a cook in the same restaurant.

She also knew Hojan, because he was always with Mickel.

Little did Barbara know that Hojan and Mickel were busy discussing in hushed tones how they were going to rob the Waffle House.

Court documents reveal: "Hojan pointed a handgun toward the three employees and ordered them into the rear of the restaurant.

"He directed them towards the refrigerated storage area and placed them in the freezer section.

"Hojan left for a moment, locking the three of them in the freezer.

"He returned after a minute and demanded their phones before leaving again.

"He then returned a second time and demanded their money.

"Christina gave him around $200 and Barbara placed $82 on the shelf. Hojan left again."

At this point, Barbara says she knew what was going to happen next, telling Willie and Christina: "He's going to kill us."

Willie, though, was adamant that wasn't going to happen.

He put his arms around the two women, now shaking from the cold, and told them: "Don't worry, we're going to be okay."

Barbara replied: "No we won't. I know them by name."

When Hojan returned a third time, Barbara pleaded with him, saying: "You don't have to do this. We can work it out."

The state documents reveal: "Hojan pointed the gun at them and ordered all three to their knees.

Begging

"Christina and Willie complied but Barbara refused, begging him not to kill them.

"She jerked her head from side to side to avoid being shot.

"Hojan shot Barbara and then turned to the other two.

"He stood in the doorway while he shot all three of them.

"Christina's body was partially under the freezer shelf, where she had tried to hide from being shot. She had a gunshot wound to her neck, inflicted from 12 to 18 inches away, and a second wound to her left breast which severed her spine.

"She could move after the head wound and would have lived for several minutes, unable to move, after the spinal injury.

ED TO TWICE

THAT'S HIM... Barbara Nunn points out the man who shot her and work pal Christina Delarosa (right)

FACE OF A KILLER: Hojan at his trial and (above) after his arrest

"Willie also had two gunshot wounds, one to the head and a defensive wound on his arm.

"He was also shot from between six and 18 inches away."

Despite a gunshot wound to the head, Barbara regained consciousness.

She pushed Willy's body off her own and somehow crawled out of the freezer before summoning help.

When police arrived on the scene, she was able to tell them who was to blame.

Hojan knew he was cornered. When he was arrested and told he'd left a victim behind who had been able to identify him, he gave a videotaped confession describing exactly what he'd done.

Confession

And, despite him attempting to retract that confession when it was time for him to face the music in court, Hojan was convicted of two counts of murder.

A jury recommended the death penalty with a nine to three majority vote.

Grieving family members assumed Hojan would be executed by lethal injection for his horrific crime.

But, in 2016, a new law was passed making it necessary for a jury to reach a unanimous decision on the death penalty.

And that prompted the Florida Supreme Court to overturn Hojan's sentence.

That re-sentencing took place in November 2018. It meant survivor Barbara Nunn and family members of the deceased had to relive their ordeal all over again.

Barbara told how Christina had said to Hojan: "I have a six-month-old son named Kyle. Am I going to see him again?"

Hojan was eventually sent back to Death Row on November 9.

His accomplice, 49-year-old Mickel, was acquitted of the murders.

He is serving five life sentences after being convicted of armed robbery and felony kidnapping charges.

Mastermind

During his sentencing in 2004, a judge told Mickel: "There is no question, having sat through both Mr Hojan's trial and your own trial, that you were the mastermind behind this entire thing.

"You manipulated Mr Hojan. He was there. He did your bidding.

"The three times that he left that freezer and went back to your location, there was absolutely no question what was going on at that point. You knew what he was doing.

"You were telling him, 'No witnesses, no witnesses, no witnesses'.

"He went back and forth. He went back and he pulled the trigger - and that pull of the trigger was a cold, calculated, premeditated act that was precipitated by your direction. There is no question about that."

Horror on couple's front porch

STAGGERING
DARKNESS:
Phillips was on mushrooms

SITTING on their front porch sipping whiskey into the early hours and talking about the good old days, it was just another night for one couple and their friends.

But things in Oklahoma City were about to take a VERY strange turn...

Because staggering out of the darkness came Brayden Phillips. And he was stark naked.

If that wasn't enough to make the drinkers on the porch wonder what their host had slipped into their bourbon, it got worse...

Because 19-year-old Phillips then prised open the family dog's mouth and flopped his flaccid member into the bewildered mutt's maw!

Antics

Police called to the scene were there in minutes, having been searching for Phillips after receiving reports of his earlier naked antics.

A police report noted: "Around 1am, officers with the Oklahoma City Police Department were called to a sex offences call near N.W. 33rd and McKinley.

"When officers arrived at the scene, they found Brayden Phillips naked on the front porch of a home. Witnesses told police that they were sitting outside their home when Phillips walked up and assaulted the family's dog.

"They told officers that Phillips grabbed their dog's face and tried to pry its mouth open around his genitals."

The arrest affidavit says Phillips's behaviour was erratic, and his girlfriend said he was under the influence of magic mushrooms.

Phillips was arrested on three complaints of lewd or indecent proposals, assault and battery, public intoxication, cruelty to animals, and two counts of public indecency.

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Woke kids are just dickheads!

WE'VE all of us either employed snotty little know-it-alls, or at least worked alongside them.

You know the sort...

Just out of uni. Worships Corbyn. A piercing or two. Fake accent. Limp handshake. A refusal to look adults in the eye.

And a chip on their shoulder the size of Texas.

If they're not gay, they really want to be.

If they have any friends, all of them are emo.

Their hair is weird and the only music they can bear to listen to – self-harming razor blade in hand – is either The Smiths or Radiohead.

They go on marches and glue themselves to roads and shout “scum” at people they don't even know.

And then, to prove that no matter how much they think the world is evil, when, actually, it is quite generous to many of the less fortunate] they somehow get a job.

And eventually, once they realise how nice it is to do something that's responsible and have a few quid in their pocket to buy cars and houses and sheds and stuff, they grow up.

Or maybe they'll instead end up in the social media team within the Halifax bank/building society, or whatever it's supposed to be.

Grubby

And – equally maybe – get their grubby, unwashed, eco-hands on the keyboard of the company's Twitter account, after which all hell lets loose.

Halifax, which was propped up by the taxpayer that is you and me to the tune of £30billion as part of the 2008 banking bailout, tweeted its 118,000 followers last Tuesday.

It grandly announced it would allow staff to display their pronouns on their name badges, in a post that read “pronouns matter”.

The tweet showed a photo of a female staff member's name badge, which featured “she/her/hers” under the name Gemma.

It said the policy was to help avoid “accidental misgendering”, whatever on earth that's meant to mean.

One customer quite reasonably replied: “There's no ambiguity about the name ‘Gemma’. It's a female person's name.”

“In other words, it's pathetic virtue signalling and is seen as such by almost everyone who has responded to the initial tweet.”

“Why are you trying to alienate people?”

Within 20 minutes a member of

DON'T BANK ON IT: Halifax came under fire after it allowed staff to display pronouns on name badges the Halifax social media team, calling himself Andy M, decided to reply.

He – I'm assuming he's a he because his name is Andy, but hey, who knows?

Ironically enough, Andy did not “announce” his pronoun but said: “If you disagree with our values, you're welcome to close your account.”

Which was precisely what loads of Halifax customers promptly then did.

They closed their ISAs, they withdrew their savings, switched their mortgages, swapped current accounts, and generally buggered off to financial institutions that don't speak to them like they're naughty primary school children.

Gobble

It was the former footballer Alan Hansen who once infamously said, of Sir Alex Ferguson's Manchester United team, that “you can't win with kids” – only for Fergie's side to go on to gobble up every single piece of silverware available for a good few years to come.

But Hansen had a point, too.

And it now applies to the Halifax.

If you want to be a successful banking business, don't hand your social commentary to an oik who probably spent Sunday afternoon cheering on the moronic anti-oil protesters at Silverstone.

These people aren't edgy, or cool, or brave.

They're just dickheads.

MY ULTIMATE fantasy is sex with strangers. There's nothing more thrilling!

With a random it's spontaneous and you can't beat ripping each other's clothes off for the very first time.

You'll never see the person ever again so you're kinda anonymous – which helps you to be completely uninhibited and act totally filthy!

My most random encounter was probably pulling a bloke at a neighbour's funeral.

We were both very tipsy and it was pretty wild as it felt quite inappropriate!

We were chatting and flirting and the next minute we were snogging in the corridors at this social club.

Next we were in the loos and he was banging me up against the toilet door.

Lag's stay of execution to donate kidney

AN inmate on death row has requested a stay of execution so he can donate a KIDNEY. Ramiro Gonzales, 39 (above), is due to be put to death via lethal injection on July 13 for the murder of a Texas teenager in 2001.

His lawyers appealed to Gov Greg Abbott to delay the execution by a month so Gonzales can be considered a living donor to someone in urgent need of a kidney transplant.

They also asked the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles for a six-month reprieve in connection with the requested donation.

Attorneys Thea Posel and Raoul Schonem said a University of Texas transplant team found Gonzales to be an "excellent candidate" for donation due to his rare blood type.

"Virtually all that remains is the surgery to remove Ramiro's kidney. The relevant authorities have confirmed the procedure could be completed within a month," Posel and Schonemann wrote to Abbott.

Mayor weds alligator to help village

THE mayor of a Mexican town has married an ALLIGATOR – to help bring good fortune to his fishing community.

San Pedro Huamelula Mayor, Victor Hugo Sosa, bent down to kiss the reptile while its snout was tied shut during the ceremony where trumpets and drums played.

The seven-year-old gator, called Little Princess, is seen as a deity that represents nature, and her marriage to a local leader symbolises humans connecting with the divine.

The alligator was carried by locals through village streets as men fanned it with their hats. The colourful ceremony is part of a ritual that can be traced back centuries to pre-Hispanic times.

Mayor Sosa said: "We ask nature for enough rain, for enough food, and that we have fish in the river."

TATTS OUT FOR THE LADS: Bonnie flashes the flesh

SANDRA Bullock's ex-husband has wed again... to a VERY different sort of actress.

Reality TV star Jesse James celebrated his marriage to porn legend Bonnie Rotten, who is famous for her extreme ANAL SEX adult videos.

Jesse is best known for his former marriage to clean-cut actress Sandra, which was brought to an end due to his infidelity.

Bonnie wed under her real name Alaina Hicks – her second marriage and the West Coast Choppers founder's fifth.

Videos

Jesse, 53, and Bonnie, 29, both shared a series of photos and videos that captured the special moments of the day.

One photo shows the couple holding hands and looking into each other's eyes as the vows were being read during the ceremony.

Jesse added a caption to his Instagram post: "1 Corinthians 16:14. Let all that you do be done in love."

At the end, Jesse added: "Greatest day ever yesterday!"

Bonnie also posted a loving caption to her own social media pics, adding: "6.25.22 I can't wait to spend the rest of my life with you."

"Yesterday was the most magical day. I am so thankful to have those close to us join us for our day of love."

"All the planets were aligned, figuratively and literally. I found my soul mate. I won't be letting him go."

Bonnie had her six-year-old daughter from her first marriage in attendance.

Hollywood legend Sandra and Jesse were married from 2005 to 2010, and they adopted a child.

However, soon after the couple took that big step, news of his infidelity broke.

The Speed actress filed for divorce in 2010 and is now in a long-term relationship with Bryan Randall.

Tattooed Bonnie is well-known to porn fans thanks to her bumhole.

Her movies have included scenes of blowjobs, vaginal sex, anal, double penetration, fisting, creampie, bondage and messy bukkake.

She's also made several soggy squirting videos but has now retired from the grumble industry.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Lexi,

I'm a 40-year-old divorcee and I recently moved in with my girlfriend who's the same age. She has a 20-year-old daughter who is a real cracker.

The other night, as I was dozing in bed, I felt my bird's hand on my cock. Then I felt her kissing my helmet.

But suddenly I realised that it wasn't my bird sucking my dick - it was her lass!

Then her mum began to kiss me passionately. She edged her daughter out of the way and took me into her mouth and I shot my load.

I was soon stiff again and my missus hopped on it. Then they swapped over and I rode the pair of them into the early hours.

Is this normal?

KS, west Midlands

Lexi says...

WHO cares?... Enjoy it while it lasts.

Dear Lexi,

I'm a bloke and I have been a ladies' hairdresser since I left school. Recently, I launched a mobile service and about a month ago I went to a house for an appointment with a woman who was absolutely stunning.

As I was cutting her hair I accidentally brushed my groin against her and she smiled as she felt the stiffy I was sporting.

And she continued to smile as she started to rub my hard cock and then slowly unzipped my trousers.

It was my turn to smile as she took my eight-incher into her mouth and slurped on my manhood.

Then we moved upstairs and fked each other senseless for the next three hours.

Now she's a regular weekend customer and I'm wondering if I should start charging her for my extra services.

DB, Cheshire

Lexi says...

NO. Just accept it as a perk of the job.

Drunk hubby's best pal showed me a hard time

Dear Lexi,

ME and my husband have been married for 12 years, but we've hit a bit of a stale patch.

Anyway, we decided to go to the pub the other weekend and meet up with some pals.

As usual, my hubby got himself completely rat-arsed and crashed across a table full of drinks.

His best mate told me to stay put and then carried him outside and got him in a taxi back to our house.

I was giggling with my pals when my husband's mate returned to tell me he had tucked him up in bed.

I was grateful because he's a nice bloke whose wife has just left him.

We got chatting and then I felt his hand on my thigh.

I reached down and grasped his stiffening manhood through his trousers.

We got a cab to his home, fondling and kissing each other all the way and when we arrived we got down to it.

I held his hard cock and cupped his balls before going down on him and licking his swollen shaft.

Then I dropped to all fours so he could enter me from behind.

After shooting his load, he very quickly recovered and proved himself a stud as he drilled me a second time.

I'm desperate to shag him again. What should I do?

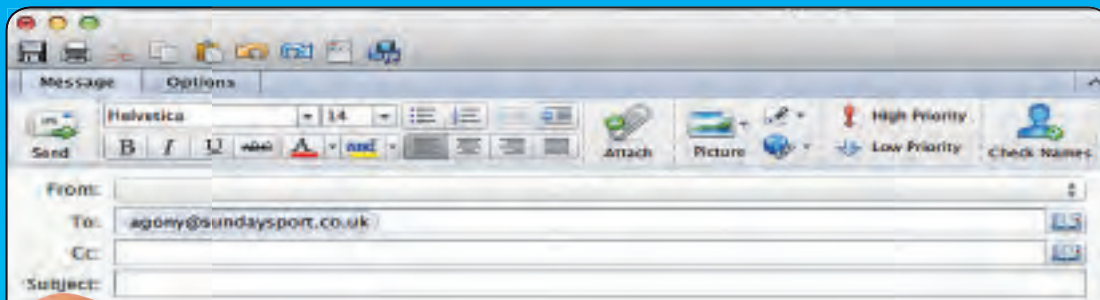

TT, Liverpool

Lexi says...

YOU'VE got a big decision to make.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week LEXI LOWE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Older lover so good in bed – but so boring!

Dear Lexi,

I'M a 30-year-old hairdresser who runs my own salon and I've been dating a fella 20 years older than me.

We met in a bar one night, when I'd gone out with some of my girlie mates for a quiet drink.

There was a group of lads bothering us and this man stepped in and told them they were spoiling our evening.

The lads quickly went away and he offered to buy us a drink.

We chatted for the rest of the night and when he offered me a lift home I gratefully accepted.

So I asked him in for coffee and once inside I leaned over and kissed him on the lips and said thanks for gallantly coming to our rescue.

After sitting in the lounge and sharing a bottle of wine, his hand slipped under my skirt, touching the soft flesh at the top of my stockings.

Then he pushed my panties aside and it was obvious to him that I was turned on because I was dripping wet.

As he explored my pussy, I felt I would explode – his expert touch was delicious as he probed inside me and we both took it in turns to lick my love juices off his fingers.

Then I unzipped him and started to stroke his impressive hard-on.

He moaned with pleasure as I lowered my head and took him tenderly between my lips and sucked him slowly.

Straddled

Within a couple of minutes I could feel the pressure building up in his balls, so I pulled away and said we should go upstairs.

We undressed and lay on the bed. He licked my nipples and played with my massive breasts.

I then pushed him back on the bed, straddled him and slowly lowered myself onto his rock-hard cock.

I fked him slowly at first and then increased the speed until we both came together.

It was the best sex I'd ever had and afterwards we lay there for hours, cuddling and chatting.

I've been with him for six months now and I adore him very much.

But the problem is I want us to go out partying together – with all my other pals – but he says he likes to stay in and watch TV.

How can I tell him he's boring without hurting him?

KT, Essex

Lexi says...

HIS raving days are obviously behind him. You may have to move on.

Dear Lexi,

I'M a 30-year-old housewife and a couple of weeks ago I was seduced by an older woman.

My husband, who is a builder, was away when a woman in her 40s came knocking on the door.

I asked her in, wondering if she was upset with some work my husband had done.

But instead she confessed they had been having an affair for two years!

I burst into tears and after a few moments we fell into each other's arms for comfort.

Then she kissed me on the lips, saying she knew a great way to get even with him.

She started to flick her tongue in and out of my mouth and I felt myself becoming aroused.

I gave in to her as she slipped my bra over my shoulders and began licking my nipples.

I moaned with delight as she massaged my clitoris before going down on me and bringing me to several shuddering climaxes.

I found it exciting to lap at her pussy, especially when she screamed out in orgasm.

She's now dumped my husband, but I'm still seeing her.

Is this OK?

HD, Tyneside

Lexi says...

MAYBE you should dump him too.

Phone MILF gave me a filthy call!

Dear Lexi,

I RUN a little business selling and fixing mobile phones. I'm a 23-year-old single fella and don't have any problems pulling the ladies.

One afternoon, when I was on my own in my cabin, I was approached by a woman in her 40s who had a problem with her mobile.

She was a tasty blonde with big tits and a nice arse. I could tell she fancied me by the look on her face.

I went to the storeroom at the back of the cabin to get a replacement part for her phone.

But she followed me and asked if I would use my tools on her!

So I said, "Why not?" and as soon as I said that she took off her top to reveal her fantastic knockers.

Throbbing

Then she quickly pulled down my pants to reveal my six-incher standing to attention.

She wrapped her boobs around my cock and then began sucking on my throbbing bellend.

She licked my balls and shaft and just as I was about to chuck my muck, she stopped and begged me to take her doggy-style.

After a minute of pumping I unleashed the lot. Then, as if nothing had happened, she got up and picked up her phone and walked out of the shop.

I'd love to see her again, but I'm not allowed to access client's addresses or private details. What should I do?

JH, east Yorkshire

Lexi says...

HOPE she returns with more phone trouble!

'N' HORNY

DO you know what lusty Lola likes?

Having her massive 36H boobs rubbed and fondled by another girl, that's what!

The busty beauty, originally from the Czech Republic but now living in Birmingham, said:

"Don't get me wrong, I like men and I like it when they fondle my huge breasts."

"But a woman has that gentle touch on my hard nipples that can make juices run from my fully-shaved pussy.

"And when I am all wet, she can slide in a dildo and make me cum over and over again."

And usually when I come, I squirt, too – like a broken dishwasher!"

Lola added: "I also love just lying on my bed, teasing my little pink clitty and maybe putting a finger in my bumhole."

"It is very naughty, no?"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDs FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

MICHELLE COLLINS

BUTCHER Nathan Gallagher wants to serve up his own meat for glamour girl Michelle Collins.

Nathan owns his own business in the city of Leeds and his shop is famous for its award-winning sausage, which the 58-year-old would love 32E lovely Michelle to sample!

Exeter lovely Brandy lives a bit far away, but Nathan wouldn't mind if the busty babe popped into his shop.

He said: "She's a cracker, is Michelle. I'd love for her to sample some of our specials – and if she's lucky, she can taste my very own sausage treat, too!"

Haven't seen your favourite model for a while? Drop us a note and we'll put her in the paper! Email request@sundaysport.co.uk

NICOLA ULIAN

BARMAN Kyle Radley has a penchant for exotic girls and Nicola Ulian is his ideal woman.

Kyle, 53, works behind a bar in Blackburn, Lancs, and although he spends his shifts mixing drinks, Nicola is his perfect concoction.

Manchester-born cutie Nicola caught Kyle's eye when he first saw her 30E bare boobs in the Sport and he's been hooked ever since.

He said: "Nicola has everything – the boobs, the body and the looks. She's a worldie and I always say she's my perfect woman."

Ana looks a nice earner

ANA Hadi is expected to get off the mark at the second time of asking at Lingfield.

The Gay Kelleway-trained colt lines up for the Download The At The Races App Restricted Novice Stakes on the back of an encouraging first run at Chelmsford.

Slightly wayward from the stalls, he raced towards the rear and then switched wide to challenge, staying on well to be second.

He stretched out nicely in the finish and looks certain to pick up a race with normal improvement from that.

Break

A return to the Polytrack can work the oracle for Rock Girl in the Download The At The Races App Nursery Handicap.

George Boughey's youngster showed promise on her first two runs here, before a more lacklustre effort at Leicester. This first try at six furlongs also promises to be in her favour.

Wings Of A Dove has won two of her last three since returning from a break and can make it three from four in the William Pears Group Handicap.

Both those wins have been here, and it was a cosy one last time out, too, so while life is a bit tougher back up to a mark of 70, she has plenty of past form that suggests she will be involved once more.

Decent Meydan performer Minwah was pitched in at the deep end on her British debut and should find the Free Tips Daily On attheraces.com Maiden Fillies' Stakes offering rather calmer waters than the Sandringham at Royal Ascot.

Apache Spark can her debut run behind when she tackles the Unibet/British Stallion Studs EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes at Kempton Park.

Things did not pan out quite as hoped as she got a bump along the way on the wide outside and was ultimately one of those who found the winner Minnetonka too good.

The latter has gone to finish fourth in a Listed race at Newmarket, so there is every chance the Ralph Beckett filly bumped into one on the day. Frankie Dettori will do the steering at the Sunbury venue.

Golden Lyra should be far too good in the Unibet Horserace Betting Operator Of The Year Novice Stakes.

William Haggas' filly had the top-class Nashwa in third on her only two-year-old start and did not lose too much when second to a good one in Stay Alert on her return.

At Bath, the George Scott-trained Tribuna Uffizi is the obvious pick in the Sky Sports Racing HD Virgin 535 Handicap, with the booking of Benoit De La Sayette negating the 5lb penalty for his course win last week.

■Mishriff could be set to tread a similar path to 12 months ago following his close-up second in the Coral-Eclipse, with a run in the King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot on July 23 before he attempts to defend his Juddmonte International crown at York.

John and Thady Gosden's globetrotter was unlucky when beaten a neck on his first run since disappointing in Saudi earlier in the year.

Failed

Mishriff was slowly away in the hands of David Egan, but made stylish headway as the race entered the business end.

However, he was short of room with a furlong to run and Egan had no option but to shift Mishriff to the outside and just failed to reel in Vadeni.

Racing manager Ted Voute said: "The primary focus is on the Juddmonte. We will stay in the King George and see what sort of race it is and either throw our hat in the mix or bypass and head straight for the Juddmonte."

NOT LONG NOW UNTIL THE NEW SEASON KICKS OFF

Leeds are Marsching on together booms Liam

WE'LL BE BIGGER AND STRONGER THIS SEASON UNDER JESSE HOPES SKIPPER

LEEDS captain Liam Cooper feels the club are embarking on a new era as they prepare for their third season in the Premier League.

Jesse Marsch completed his fourth big summer signing with the arrival of teenage midfielder Darko Gyabi on Monday, shortly after confirming Calvin Phillips had completed his switch to Manchester City.

Testing

Raphinha remains hopeful of sealing a move to Barcelona, while Marsch wants to add three more players to his squad following the earlier arrivals of Brenden Aaronson, Rasmus Kristensen and Marc Roca.

Cooper, among the club's international players who reported back for pre-season testing at Leeds Beckett University, said: "It does feel like a new era yes."

By ANDY MILLOM

"You could say the club's going to rebuild."

"I think Jesse has got his own ideas."

"Jesse's come in and he does like to play the 4-2-2-2 and it does work for us, maybe we didn't have the right players at times to do that, but he's brought in top quality players."

"Jesse's brilliant at what he does and is a great coach and I'm sure he'll drill those ideas into us and come the start of the season we'll know exactly what we're going to do."

"He'll be the first to tell you we didn't quite produce what he wanted at the end of last season, but I think that was a result of the situation we were in."

Scotland defender Cooper posted a good luck message to Phillips on Twitter after his £45million move to City was finalised, but insisted it was time to look forward after last season's relegation scare.

"Our self-belief took a knock at times last season," Cooper said. "You always question yourself and it was difficult. It was a stressful season, but that's gone now."

"We've got to be optimistic now and we've got to go and aim as high as we can in the table this season."

"I think, going off our first season, obviously last season was a struggle, it was difficult, but our first season we finished ninth and I think we've definitely got to aim for top half."

Raphinha is holding out for his dream move to Barcelona after Chelsea were reported to have had a £60m offer for the Brazil winger accepted.

The cash-strapped Spanish giants have yet to raise sufficient funds, but if Raphinha does leave Elland Road, Leeds aim to draft in three more new players.

Two deals could be completed before Leeds head to Australia on Sunday for a three-game mini tour.

Roar

Holding midfielders Tyler Adams (RB Leipzig) and Mohamed Camara (RB Salzburg) are both on the Whites' list of targets, together with Brugge striker Charles De Ketelaere.

Leeds kickstart their pre-season fixture programme at York on Thursday night and then head Down Under, where they will play Brisbane Roar (July 14), Aston Villa (July 17) and Crystal Palace (July 22).

EXCITED: Toone

England out to call Toone in opener

By WES KIRBY

ELLA Toone is hoping England can 'thrive off any nerves' as they prepare to launch their Euro 2022 campaign.

The host nation open this summer's long-awaited tournament when they take on Austria at a sell-out Old Trafford tonight.

With England among the favourites there is plenty of excitement surrounding their involvement but Toone hopes to channel it into positive energy.

"I think for me there's a lot of excitement," said the Man United striker. "I think the girls are just excited to get going."

"When we step out onto the pitch in front of that massive crowd there might be a few nerves but I always think, we play every single day, we do what we love – so thrive off the nerves if there are any but for me right now, I just can't wait."

The Group A opener at Old Trafford carries extra poignancy for Toone having grown up as an ardent supporter of the United men's team and now being one of the key players in their women's side's attack.

"For me personally it's massive," said the 22-year-old. "Growing up, supporting Manchester United and having the opportunity to play for Manchester United at Old Trafford was so special and a moment that I'll never forget."

"Then obviously now, stepping out for England at our home Euros, opening the tournament at Old Trafford is going to be amazing."

"I've just been having the same dream every night about scoring at the Stretford End."

"I think for me it's just so proud to be able to go there and represent England at a major tournament at my home stadium. I'll enjoy every moment."

England will be hoping to get off to a good start ahead of Monday's clash against Norway at Brighton and Northern Ireland at Southampton the following Friday.

NO ONE LIKES ME, I DON'T CARE!

Tennis bad boy Kyrgios a big smash

NICK Kyrgios is being fuelled by his critics as he bids to achieve a best grand slam result at Wimbledon.

After the drama and recriminations of his clash with Stefanos Tsitsipas, the Australian's fourth-round match against Brandon Nakashima on Centre Court was a much less tempestuous affair.

Kyrgios struggled with a shoulder problem but recovered from a set down and then clinched the decider against 20-year-old American Nakashima, winning 4-6 6-4 7-6 (2) 3-6 6-2 to set up a quarter-final with Chile's Cristian Garin.

Kyrgios' battle against Tsitsipas was undoubtedly the most talked-about match of the tournament so far, with the 27-year-old receiving plenty of criticism for his on-court behaviour.

"Honestly, I don't care," said Kyrgios. "I just smile. It's so funny. I joke around with my team about it so much. It's hilarious."

"I almost just wake up and read things, and I just laugh. And I never forget things people say, whether it was three, four years ago, things that just stick with me."

"I have a massive chip on my shoulder. I sit here now in the quarter-finals of Wimbledon again, and I just know there's so many people that are so upset."

Kyrgios has reached the last eight at slams twice, on Wimbledon debut in 2014 and at the Australian Open the following year, losing at that stage both times.

There have been more lows than highs since but he was proud of the way he fought his way past Nakashima, saying: "I need a glass of wine tonight for sure."

By NED PERRY

And Kyrgios now feels mentally ready to go even further.

"I was almost just smiling and laughing to myself on the far side, just knowing I was locked in an absolute battle," he said. "In the past I wasn't able to kind of enjoy that."

"That's probably the first time in my career where I wasn't playing well, regardless of playing Centre Court Wimbledon, fully packed crowd, I was able to just say, 'Wow, look how far I've come'."

Blessed

"I was bouncing the ball before I served. I just smiled to myself. I was like, 'We're here, we're competing at Wimbledon, putting in a good performance mentally'."

"There was a time where I was having to be forced out of a pub at 4am to play Nadal second round. My agent had to come get me before I played my match on Centre Court. I've come a long way, that's for sure."

"Now to sit here quarter-finals of Wimbledon feeling good, feeling composed, feeling mature, I'm extremely blessed. I feel like I'm just comfortable in my own skin."

The concern is whether Kyrgios' body can hold up. He began holding his shoulder during the first set before taking painkillers and then a medical time-out later.

He said: "I just want to continue to do the right things physically, professionally. My team does such a good job. I do so much physio work. We all stay as a close-knit team. We're just doing this together. Hopefully we can keep going."

CURRY OUT OF WALLABIES TESTS

By NED PERRY

ENGLAND'S hopes of levelling their series against Australia have suffered a blow after Tom Curry was ruled out of the last two Tests because of concussion.

Curry is to return home with the head injury sustained in the first half of Saturday's 30-28 defeat in Perth and will face "continuing assessment and ongoing management".

The Sale flanker was stood down after an HIA and the Rugby Football Union says that the decision to withdraw him from the tour is in the "interest of player welfare and recovery".

Curry's head whipped backwards while tackling

Wallabies centre Samu Kerevi in the 14th minute and despite the heavy blow, he completed the half.

It was when the 2019 world player of the year nominee presented with concussion symptoms at the interval that he was sent for an HIA and failed to appear for the second half.

No decision has yet been made on whether he will be replaced in the 36-man touring party.

Under new guidelines, players with a history of concussion or who are removed from a match with obvious symptoms face a minimum mandatory stand down period of 12 days.

Curry fits the second of these criteria meaning he would have missed at least the second Test, which takes place in Brisbane on Saturday.

He was withdrawn from half-time of the 23-19 victory over Wales on February 26 due to concussion but was cleared to face Ireland a fortnight later before being ruled out against France because of a hamstring issue.

Lewis Ludlam made an impact as Curry's replacement at Optus Stadium and is the leading contender to replace him, while Sam Underhill and Jack Willis are also options at onside.

■PROP Tomas Francis is out of Wales' remaining Test matches against South Africa after suffering concussion.

Francis was carried off after taking a blow to his head during Saturday's 32-29 first-Test defeat in Pretoria.

He faced a mandatory stand-down period of 12 days, but the Ospreys forward will now return home on Tuesday.

The Welsh Rugby Union said: "Tomas Francis will play no further part in the Wales tour in South Africa following the concussion he sustained in the first Test against the Springboks."

NEW DEAL: Moutinho

Moutinho commits future to Wolves

JOAO Moutinho has signed a new one-year deal at Wolves.

The 34-year-old midfielder, who was out of contract this summer, has ended the uncertainty surrounding his future.

Portugal international Moutinho is due to return for pre-season at the club's Compton training ground today.

Wolves technical director Scott Sellars said: "In Joao's time at the club, he's been vital, bringing real experience and quality to the group, so to get him re-signed is a massive boost for us all."

"With contracts, it's about getting to a place where everybody's happy, the club and the player, and it isn't always easy, but in the end what matters is the outcome and we're very happy with it."

"He's a huge influence in the dressing room, with the younger players, and sets standards that they follow. His and Bruno Lage's relationship is very important. As a coach, you like players who can solve things on the pitch, and Joao is certainly one of them."

"During his time with us, and the data will prove it, he hasn't dropped his performance levels, with the football and physically, he's very fit and very professional, so it's no surprise he's still playing to a high standard at his age."

"You don't play at the top for so long, being a regular international for Portugal, if you've not got the right mentality and attitude. If you're going to be a professional athlete, you've got to have competitiveness with whatever you do, and he has that in abundance."

"If you look at him across the board – technically, physically and mentally, how he is around the place, he's so important, and we look forward to seeing Joao back at Compton and being a part of the squad this season."

Moutinho joined from Monaco for £5million in 2018 and has made 176 appearances, scoring five goals.

He made 34 top-flight starts last season as Wolves finished 10th in the Premier League.

GREEN LIGHT AFTER CLUB TRIAL

STANDING BACK AT FOOTBALL

All Premier League and Championship clubs can have fans on their feet again

STANDING up at football matches is back for the new season.

All clubs in the top two tiers of English football can apply to operate licensed safe standing areas, the Government has said.

Cardiff, Chelsea, Manchester City, Manchester United and Tottenham took part in a safe standing pilot in the second half of last season and Brentford, QPR and Wolves will now join those clubs in offering designated areas for home and away fans from the start of the 2022-23 season.

Rails

The Government also confirmed that Wembley would also offer limited safe standing for fans from both sets of clubs at domestic matches later in the season, whilst other clubs are expected to apply as the season progresses. The Football Association will trial safety rails at England's Nations League match against Germany in September, but at that stage spectators must remain seated.

By PAUL THOMAS

Once the trials are completed, and should approval be given by the Sports Grounds Safety Authority (SGSA), 892 seats in the lowest tier behind each goal – 1,784 seats in total – will be in designated safe standing areas.

Sports Minister Nigel Huddleston had said in May he was "minded" to offer the option to all Premier League and Championship clubs on the back of interim findings from independent research on the pilot.

The pilot marked the end of a blanket ban on standing in the top two tiers of English football which had been in place for more than 25 years, with those clubs having been required to provide all-seated accommodation since August 1994 in the wake of the 1989 Hillsborough disaster, where 97 Liverpool fans lost their lives.

It is understood Liverpool are not considering introducing safe standing for next season, but may extend or increase their existing rail seating provision having run a separate club pilot last season.

Opinions

Huddleston said: "We're confident now that we can roll out safe standing."

"We've engaged with lots of stakeholders, including importantly with Hillsborough families, because it's really important that we do take everybody's views and opinions on board."

"Fans want it, we can do it safely, and I think it's a good day for football."

The report on safe standing, compiled by CFE Research, acknowledged the rise in anti-social behaviour and disorder at football matches during last season but said this was not attributable to the introduction of safe standing areas.

Pitch invasions marred a number of end-of-season matches, but the report found that such invasions were actually more difficult from safe standing areas because the barriers limit movement downwards towards the pitch.

The report found the barriers also help to protect against progressive crowd collapse, where supporters surge forward and push into people in the rows in front, creating a domino effect.

It also found no evidence the safe standing areas led to an increase in standing in other parts of the stadium.

More than half of fans surveyed in the research – 52 per cent – said they felt safer with the introduction of safe standing areas, with only five per cent saying they felt less safe.

However, the research did report some "isolated incidents" of fans climbing onto the barriers, with one supporter surveyed saying they suffered a back injury after someone fell off a barrier onto them, forcing them off work for three months.

The majority of respondents – 85 per cent – said they had never, or rarely, seen such incidents but the report urged clubs and the SGSA to take steps to mitigate the risk.

Unlocked

These included comprehensive and high-quality CCTV footage, asking away club stewards to support local stewards, updated codes of conduct – specifically prohibiting such behaviour and disciplinary action against those who engage in it.

Campaigners have highlighted that leaving seats unlocked assists those wishing to climb onto the barriers, but the report did not recommend altering the advice that seats should remain unlocked, so that supporters have the option to sit during the match if they wish to.

The report also highlighted that ambulant disabled supporters' experience had been negatively impacted by the introduction of safe standing areas and that clubs should consult with all supporter groups, including Disabled Supporter Associations, to fully understand the ambulant disabled perspective alongside that of those using wheelchair bays.

Huddleston added: "It's a big day for football, it's a big day for fans, because this is not the old terraces, this is a very different world and safety is at the heart of it."

"It's one space per person, with a seat should people wish to sit down, but with those barriers behind and in front of them."
